

Mandatory Quarantine Notice for Guests of Montana Hotels & Lodging Properties

Governor Bullock has directed that travelers arriving from another state or country to Montana for non-work-related purposes undergo a 14-day self-quarantine. This mandatory quarantine lifts on June 1 when the state moves into Phase Two of the reopening plan.

Find all directives and the state's phased reopening plan at COVID19.MT.GOV.

- Any person coming to Montana from another state or country for a non-work-related purpose must immediately self-quarantine for 14 days. If a person will be present in Montana for fewer than 14 days, that person must self-quarantine for the duration of the visit.
- If you are quarantining (e.g. have come from or traveled out-of-state) you cannot leave for groceries, public outdoor recreation (including hunting/fishing), to go to work or any other activity. You must remain at your place of quarantine for the duration of the quarantine period (14 days). Exceptions will only be made in the event of a medical emergency, fire, natural disaster or other act of God preventing the ongoing healthful habitation of a residence.
- Any person who has already arrived in Montana from another state or country for a non-work-related purpose before the date of this Directive must immediately self-quarantine for the remainder of a 14-day period beginning on the date of their arrival in Montana, or until their departure from Montana—whichever is sooner.
- These quarantine restrictions do not apply in the following circumstances: to persons traveling through Montana en route to another destination; or to public health, public safety or healthcare workers
- These quarantine restrictions shall apply to Montana residents and non-residents alike.
